

STANDING RULES OF THE CLUB

In addition to the Bylaws of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Inc. (GSDCMSP or the Club), the following rules and regulations have been adopted by the Members.

I. ANNUAL SHOW, OBEDIENCE TRIAL AND PERFORMANCE EVENTS

We, as a recognized Regional Member Club of the German Shepherd Dog Club of America, Inc., will endeavor to hold one or more Specialty Shows and performance events or trials each year under the rules and regulations of the American Kennel Club.

The Club will hold our back-to-back Specialty Shows as a two-day show on a Membership-approved weekend as approved by the AKC and GSDCA. GSDCA Regional Futurity shows are AKC-designated and are held the same weekend (as approved by the Membership), and as approved by the GSDCA for our Club to act as host.

Selection of judges shall be performed according to the Procedure for Selection of Judges as follows:

The selection of conformation and performance judges for the Annual Specialty shows of the GSDCMSP will be conducted at the regular November Membership Meeting.

A change in the date of the annual voting for judges can be made if the announcement is made at the previous month's Membership Meeting, or the date selection of the judges is emailed to Members with active email addresses and mailed to those without a minimum of 20 days in advance.

The procedure for nomination and voting shall be as follows:

- The floor will be opened for nominations of conformation judges.
- Each person nominating a judge will provide a brief summary of the judge's experience (i.e. years of judging, champions owned or bred, kennel name, state of residence, etc.).
- Nominations will remain open until a slate of seven judges is achieved or until no further nominations are forthcoming from the floor.
- The voting will take place in rounds. In the first round each member in attendance will vote by show of hand for his first choice judge. The judge receiving the highest number of votes is the first choice judge.
- The second round will then begin. Each Member will cast their vote by a show of hand for his second- choice judge. The judge receiving the highest number of votes in this round is the second choice judge. The third, fourth, and fifth place judges will be selected using the same procedure.
- In the event of a tie, each Member is entitled to one vote in a special tie-breaking round between the tied judges. The judge with the most votes is recorded in the position in contention. The other judge is retained on the slate for further rounds of voting.

After completion of voting for conformation judges, the above procedure will be employed to select obedience and rally judges.

The Chairperson of other performance events will make recommendations for judges with Board approval.

The application for the next show will be made to the American Kennel Club to follow AKC guidelines for timely submission.

Judges accepting assignment with the GSDCMSP will sign and agree to a contract with the following stipulations:

The judge will accept no assignments to judge German Shepherd Dogs within six (6) months and 600 miles of the contracted show. The 600-mile radius is intended to include the GSD Regional Club areas of Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, Quad Cities, Des Moines, and Wisconsin.

In addition to an agreed fee, judges will be reimbursed for two (2) nights lodging and either the standard IRS mileage rate or one economy airfare, whichever is less.

Contract will be sent to consenting judges within ten (10) days following verbal or email acceptance of judging assignment. If contract is not returned to the Club or Show Secretary within thirty days, it will be considered a refusal of the assignment.

The Club Treasurer will reimburse the judges for their expenses and provide their fees on the day of the show. All show expenses must be submitted by the Show Chairperson within 30 days of the show. If for some reason this is not possible; the Treasurer must be notified of the expenses and given an estimated total.

Trophies

The maximum amount to be spent on awards per show is to be determined by Membership donations on an annual basis. It is recommended that donations be solicited for both shows simultaneously prior to the June shows.

Donation pledges for trophies must be received prior to the printing of the Judging Program for Members to be acknowledged in it. Donations can be collected immediately or paid with Annual Membership dues.
